Cactus Jack

The name says wild, the glass says tropical—cactus, pineapple and citrus with a subtle botanical edge.

Turn up The Beet

Earthy beetroot and tomato get a sweet-spiced lift from grenadine and cactus, turning an unlikely pairing into a seriously good sip.

Saffron Lemon Drop

Golden saffron meets tart cranberry and zesty grapefruit, lifted with ginger ale and aromatic bitters for a bright Indian twist on the classic.

Panama

An elegant interplay of grapes, orange bitters and white cacao, finished with a light touch of fresh cream.

Blueberry Basil Gimlet

Juicy blueberry meets fragrant basil and bright lemon, finished with tonic for a crisp, herbaceous twist on the classic Gimlet.

Mayfir London

Citrus and delicate botanicals unfold over crisp tonic, bringing a little of Mayfair's understated elegance to the glass.

Irish Maid

Cool cucumber and floral elderflower are lifted by fresh citrus for a clean, refreshing Irish-inspired pour.

Strawberry Ember

Bright strawberry meets glowing notes of smoky honey and aromatic herbs, leaving behind a gentle warmth like the last ember of a fire.

We are a celebration of contrasting worlds. It's where the timeless soul of a classic local pub meets the unapologetic cravings of the modern Indian foodie.

There's a certain magic when you slide into a heavy wooden booth, the warm lighting hits just right, and the bass line settles into your chest. We built this space for the slow afternoons that accidentally blur into rowdy, unforgettable nights.

Sure, you can grab a pristine Hot Matcha Latte or an elegant Artisanal Margherita. But let's be honest—the real magic happens when you pair a smoky Whiskey Barrel brew with our melt-in-your-mouth Fun-Guy Seekh, or follow up a crisp Blueberry Basil Gimlet with a plate of tender & creamy Pahadi Broccoli with Burrata. That's pure, beautiful food anarchy.

Ultimately, we're just a neighborhood sanctuary built on good energy, heavy timber, and great soundtracks. It's a place to disconnect from the chaos outside, lose track of the hours, and find your rhythm. Whatever your day demands, our doors are open—come on in, find a corner, and make yourself at home.
